II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

My daughter is a child. Five, with great effort provided a safe and loving environment for her to flourish into a woman. We've been harmed by vile content. May the honorable magistrate grant the opportunity to showcase the abhorrent practices at Alphabet Inc. Children's innocence should not be violated

My child has above average marks in school. A loving kind hearted young lady whom has lost her mom and endured pain most haven't experienced. When my daughter queries for kids programs shouldn't include sexually suggestive content. As her parent I request discovery to share and find out why this happening and I ask the jury to grant relief in the sum of twenty billion dollars to rectify psychological damage to her years
